

Wanskuck Branch Library
223 Veazie Street
Providence, RI 02903
455-8108

The branch of 10 within Providence Plantations
Whose meaning is "lowlands" for Native American nations.
At 223 Veazie Street where banners of blue
Between its columns formerly flew.
Welcome, please enter, walk in the door,
Up the stairs and begin to explore.
A mirror is helpful to decipher some clues,
Knowledge of runes, hieroglyphics and secret coding too.
So Letterboxer adventure bound,
Come inside and wander around.
Looking for clues hidden high and low.
The more you search, the quicker you'll know
Where our letterbox can be found.
It definitely is above ground.
Look for the "Can't find what you need" sign
Keep going north in a straight line.
Head for the Environmental/Industrial tile wall.
Watch out for the computers, be careful not to fall.
Turn east 9 paces your hunt has begun,
Get ready, set, go here's clue #1.
Search carefully in every cranny and nook
And soon you'll locate the proper book.
At Classic Myths (R291), your journey stops.
Turn to page 320 about the Cyclops.
This holds the hints to the next clue,
Which can be found in book #2.